

Who We Are

The Santa Clara County EAC is a non-profit organization of local employers and representatives from the Employment Development Department (EDD).

With an employee base of 92,000, our 250 members represent a cross-section of the private and public sectors, including:

- Business Services
- Education
- Engineering
- Finance
- Government
- Health
- Legal
- Manufacturing
- Non-profit
- Real Estate
- Retail
- Technology
- Telecommunications
- Transportation

The EAC is a communications conduit between local employers and state government. We advocate practical and positive change in workforce development and employment policies, on behalf of the employer community.

Our Mission

Our mission is to enhance the Silicon Valley employer environment:

- ▶ To provide local employers with information and education through monthly seminars
- ▶ To give employers a voice in employment policies on the local (EDD), state and national levels
- ▶ To strengthen the EDD-employer partnership
- ▶ To recommend EDD services to meet the needs of employers
- ▶ To provide up-to-date information about employment and workforce development issues
- ▶ To support "job match" services between companies who are downsizing and companies who are hiring

We proudly sponsor employee scholarships and support Veterans' programs.

Membership = Benefits

For an annual fee of just $45 per company, members can:

- ▶ Access our Hotline for answers to employer questions
- ▶ Network with member employers
- ▶ Attend our seminars at a discount

Our monthly breakfast buffets feature experts who demystify legislation and bring you up-to-date on topics such as labor law, unemployment and disability insurance, employer taxes, tips for managing troubled employees, termination issues, and other relevant employer issues

- ▶ Stay current on changes in employment law
- ▶ Save time and money by using the recruiting, interviewing and placement services of EDD's CalJobs and One-Stop systems
